Dear Monk,

Enclosed are the affidavits in the Garrison case, the covering letter with which they were sent to me by the Department of Justice, a copy of their release and a copy of the complaint.

I didn't sent these sooner because this is my first day home.

When you return them, they can go by Special Fourth Class Rate-Educational materials and be insured for less than the first-class cost. Slower, but safer. Minimum insurance is enough to cover the cost of xeroxing if they are lost or damaged.

As you can see, I have kept them in the envelope in which they were sent to me.

I have mentioned your book to the friend of whom I spoke. There could be interest in it. Let me know if and when you desire to submit it. I'll then speak to him again.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
